4. Anmerkungen.

a) Handschriften.

Für den Text sind folgende Handschriften verglichen worden:

a) Berlin Chambers 45. Saṃvat 1830.
b) — — 62. Jünger als die vorhergehende.
c) — — 77. 78. Saṃvat 1840.
d) India Office Library 1977. Śaka 1736.
e) — — — 697. Saṃvat 1852—54.

f) Eine Handschrift, die Dr. Hoernle in Calcutta mir zu leihen die Güte hatte. Saṃvat 1820—36.

g) Eine Handschrift im Besitz des Indian Government in Bombay, mit dem Commentar zusammen gebunden, von Śaka 1747.

h) Eine Handschrift der Pariser Bibliothek, D. 197. 198, von mehreren Schreibern zu verschiedenen Zeiten gefertigt.

i) Eine Abschrift von einer Telugu-Handschrift in der Tanjore Palace Library, welche Dr. Burnell für mich in Nāgarī-Schrift umschreiben liess. Ich benutze diese Gelegenheit für diesen Freundschaftsdienst ihm meinen Dank auszusprechen.

k) Die Editio princeps von Martin Haug. Bombay 1863.

Zu erwähnen ist, dass die Handschriften des Commentars den Text entweder theilweise (Anfang und Ende der einzelnen Paragraphen) oder in einzelnen Adhyāya vollständig wiedergeben.

1) sarvacaru in 6, 1 wird von dem Scholiasten als ein Ortsname, in PW. als der Name eines Mannes erklärt. Ich ergänze yajñe.

Für den Commentar von Sāyaṇa standen mir folgende Handschriften zu Gebote:

a) India Office 2991. Śaka 1771.

b) — — 1836. 1836a auf Europäischem Papier zu Anfang dieses Jahrhunderts geschrieben.

c) India Office 1353. Der achte Adhyāya. Śaka 1583.

d) Die oben unter g. genannte Handschrift der indischen Regierung zu Bombay. Wasserzeichen von 1823.

e) Eine mir von Professor Max Müller geliehene Handschrift (Aa), der Schrift nach aus dem Ende des siebzehnten Jahrhunderts, ist bis jetzt das beste Exemplar der zweiten Klasse.

f) Eine ganz moderne Handschrift in Teluguschrift, ebenfalls Müller angehörig, den Text und Commentar enthaltend, ist von mir nur bei schwierigen Stellen herbeigezogen worden.

g) Ein Fragment des ersten Buches, welches von Anfang bis 1, 16, 40 reicht, eine ganz vorzügliche Handschrift, im Besitz von M. Müller. Diese mir von Müller aus freien Stücken angebotenen Handschriften sind mir von vielem Nutzen gewesen, und es gereicht mir zu besonderer Freude ihm für das Darlehn meinen Dank zu sagen.

h) Eine Abschrift der beiden ersten Adhyāya aus der oben mit i. bezeichneten Handschrift, von Burnell mir freundlichst zugesendet.

Die Handschriften des Commentars zerfallen in zwei Klassen. Die erste ursprüngliche ist durch c. und g. vertreten. Die zweite enthält manche Lücken, Auslassungen und Verderbnisse, und dieser gehören alle übrigen von mir gesehenen Handschriften an. Zu dieser zählen auch die beiden Handschriften von Haug, die sich gegenwärtig in der Staatsbibliothek in München befinden. Zwei Stellen mögen zur Probe von der Beschaffenheit der beiden Klassen dienen. Der Commentar zu 1, 16, 40 ist nach g. mitgetheilt. In den anderen Handschriften lautet er:

athavā smṛitishu abrāhmaṇatvena pratipādito yo sti so yam abrāhmaṇoktaḥ | tad yathā | abrāhmaṇās tu shaṭ proktā iti Śātātapo bravīt | ādyas tu rājabhṛityaḥ syād dvitīyaḥ krayavikrayī | tṛitīyo bahuyājyākhyaś caturtho 'ṣṛautayājakaḥ | pañcamo grāmayājī ca shashṭho brahmabandhuḥ smṛitaḥ |

Der Commentar zu 1, 10, 2 lautet in der B-Klasse wie folgt: tāsu pūrvoktāsv ṛikshu pādam pādaḥ tasmin pāde proktā Maruto devānāṃ vaiśyā antarikshe nivasanti enaṃ yajamānaṃ ni vā roddhoḥ svargagamanaṃ niroddhuṃ vā vi vā mathitoḥ viśeshena mathitum ālodayitum vināśayitum vā te Marutaḥ īśvarāḥ samarthāḥ. In g. hingegen heisst es nach nivasanti: yo yajamānas tebhyo yady anivedya svargaṃ lokaṃ gachati enaṃ yajamānaṃ etc.

Von Lesarten im Texte ist schlechterdings nicht die Rede. Abgesehen von unbedeutenden orthographischen Eigenheiten sind die Fehler des überlieferten Textes allen Handschriften gemeinsam und werden vom Commentar bestätigt. Hiezu tritt der Umstand, dass alte Handschriften des Textes fehlen, und die vorhandenen nach dem gestaltet zu sein scheinen, welcher Sāyaṇa vorlag. In der Ausreutung dieser Fehler bin ich vielleicht etwas zu furchtsam verfahren, aber mit wenigen Ausnahmen schien es mir rathsamer, diese in den Anmerkungen hervorzuheben. Vielleicht gelingt es künftigen Forschern in Indien, die mit eben so vieler Ausdauer wie Bühler arbeiten, den älteren Commentar von Govindasvāmin zu entdecken.

In der Abtheilung der Kapitel in Paragraphen bin ich Sāyaṇa durchgängig gefolgt und habe nur selten Veranlassung gefunden, von ihm abzuweichen. Im Grossen und Ganzen ist er in diesem Commentare ein zuverlässiger Führer und zeigt eine eingehende Kenntniss des Rituals. Selbst in der Erklärung der eingestreuten vedischen Verse verfährt er mit mehr Einsicht als im Ṛigveda. Von Schriften citirt er namentlich Āśvalāyana, Āpastamba, Baudhāyana, die Taittirīyasaṃhitā und das Taittirīyabrāhmaṇa. Am Schlusse vieler Kapitel in den zwei ersten Pañcikā gibt er Auszüge aus dem Jaiminīyamālāvistara, die für unseren Zweck von keinem besonderen Werthe sind.

b) Grammatisches.

Verlängerung von Vokalen: atī tu tam arjātai (ist an der gehörigen Stelle um einen Nachdruck zu bezeichnen) 3, 42. vy ū muñcante 6, 23. nī vīva nardet 6, 32. Im Inlaut: uttaravedīnābhi 1, 28, 23. 29. 33. samāvajjāmībhyām 3, 27 (neben samāvajjāmibhiḥ). pratyavarūhya 8, 9. parīṣesha 7, 5.

Vor ṛi wird ein ā gekürzt: prathama ṛik 3, 35. pita ṛibhūn 6, 12. yatha ṛishabham 6, 18. yathaṛishi 2, 4. Kurzes a mit ṛi wird der Regel nach in ar zusammengezogen, so pancartavaḥ 1, 1. nartuyājānām 2, 29. narchet 5, 23. Daneben findet sich asya ṛicam 3, 7. nāma ṛik 3, 23. eva ṛicā 4, 7. ca ṛishayaḥ 1, 27. 2, 13. Śrautaṛishir 7, 1. sarpaṛishiḥ 6, 1. In einer gāthā (7, 17) bharataṛishabha, obgleich bharatarshabha zu sprechen ist.

au vor einem folgenden Vokal wird gewöhnlich in āv aufgelöst. Ausnahmen davon sind: Aśvinā udajayatām 4, 8. 9. Aśvinā ucatuḥ 7, 16. dvā ubhayoḥ 8, 5. Vergleicht man damit im Aitareyāraṇyaka āshṭāv-ashṭā udyante 1, 3, 5. aindrāgnā urū 1, 5, 1. karṇā upaśṛiṇuyāt 3, 2, 4. tā ūnātiriktau 1, 4, 2. ṇakārashakārā upāptau 3, 2, 6, so ergibt sich daraus die Regel, dass vor einem folgenden u das v fortgelassen wird. Diese Regel findet sich in allen anderen Brāhmaṇa durchgängig beobachtet.

k für t in der Verbindung ts findet sich in avāksam 1, 28 (vielleicht mit einem Wortspiele: die ich früher bei den Gandharven keine Rede war), sam v aṅkshva 8, 9.

Befremdlich ist das linguale n in brahmaivāsmā etat purogavam akar | ṇa vai 1, 13. 30 und in mahāṇagnī 1, 27.

s bleibt vor k in yaṣas kīrti 7, 23. 24.

r steht für l in urūka 2, 7. roman 2, 9. bahura 2, 18. ṣithira 3, 31.

Das Geschecht ist nicht beachtet in: īṣvaro hotāraṃ yaṣo 'rtoḥ (für īṣvaram), tad dha tat parāṅ (für parāk) 3, 46 (dreimal), yad vichandāḥ 5, 4, etad bhrātṛivyahā sāma 4, 2.

Die Zahl ist nicht berücksichtigt in īṣvaro (für īṣvarā) hāsya vitte devā arantoḥ 3, 48.

āpo steht für apaḥ in ātapavarshyā āpo 'bhyānīya 8, 17. tanvaḥ für tanūḥ 1, 24. stomebhiḥ für stomaiḥ 4, 15.

Feminina auf ā, i, ī, u, ū haben im Gen Abl. sg. ai, wie in allen anderen Saṃhitā und Brāhmaṇa mit Ausnahme des Ṛigveda. So apūtāyai vāco vaditāraḥ 7, 27. abhibhūtyai rūpam 8, 2. gāyatryai ca jagatyai ca 4, 27. ishvai saṃṣityai 1, 27. Daneben findet sich asyāḥ 1, 23. pratishṭhāyāḥ 3, 14. gāyatryāḥ, jagatyāḥ 6, 32. Nirṛityāḥ 4, 10. pathyāyāḥ svasteḥ 1, 9. vedeḥ 6, 3. 7, 27 u. s. w.

Im Locativ der Feminina auf i haben wir āhutyām, kīrtyām, yonyām und daneben ishṭau. bhūmyām 8, 8. bhumau 8, 9. Im Dativ sind mir nur die Formen auf ai begegnet.

Der Locativ von Stämmen auf an hat meistens keine Endung, namentlich wenn ein Adjectiv mit ihnen verbunden ist. samāne 'han 3, 47. caturviṅśe 'han 6, 23. ātman, ṣīrshan, parame vyoman, sāman. Aber auch dvitīye 'hani 4, 31. 32. tṛitīye 'hani 5, 2.

Contrahirte Instrumentale sind jagatkāmyā 6, 15. mitrakṛityā 3, 4.

Ein Superlativ mit doppelter Endung ist balishṭhatama 3, 44 (balishṭha 2, 36. 7, 16), analog dem ṣreshṭhatama in Ts. Tb.

Bei den Zahlwörtern finden sich folgende Unregelmässigkeiten: trayastriṅśatyā 6, 32. shaṭtriṅśatam ekapadāḥ 7, 1. In einem ungehörigen Casus stehen catuḥshashṭiṃ kavacina āsuḥ 3, 48. paṛṇaṣaraḥ shashṭis trīṇi ca ṣatāny āhṛitya 7, 2.

Eigenthümliche Formen beim Pronomen sind: kaḥ svit so 'smākāsti vīraḥ in der Prosa 7, 27. Der gute alte Nominativ yuvam steht 2, 22, während anderweitig nur āvām gebraucht wird. so für sa steht in der gāthā 5, 30 des Metrums willen. enat findet sich 7, 22 zweimal als Nominativ gebraucht: tad enat prītaṃ kshatrād gopāyati. Ebenso steht in Kaushītakibr. 22, 1 tasmād enau prathamau sasyete.

Beim Verbum bemerke ich zunächst den häufigen Mangel des Augments, den ich ausserdem, aber in seltneren Fällen, nur im Kaushītakibrāhmaṇa bemerkt habe. tān ikshataiva 3, 21. nyubjan 7, 30. kalpayishan 3, 30. uccakrāmat 7, 1 [1]). prajanayan 2, 38. anvavayuḥ 6, 14. pratyuttabhnuvan 4, 18. saṃsthāpayan 2, 31. visrañsata 3, 27. viharanta 2, 36. An unrechter Stelle steht das Augment in udaprapatat 3, 33, wo indessen wahrscheinlich udapatat zu lesen ist.

Das Bestreben, die Verben der zweiten Hauptklasse in die normale erste Conjugation hinüberzuziehen, zeigt sich in abhiprāṇet, abhyapānet 2, 21, pratirundhet 6, 34. abhyahanat 4, 2. nihnave 7, 17. nihnavate 1, 26 [2]). nihnavante findet sich auch in Āśvalāyana 4, 5, 7. 8, 13, 27.

Nachahmungen von vedischen Formen sind duhe (für dugdhe) 6, 3. īṣe (für ishṭe) 7, 16. ṣere (für ṣerate) 5, 28, 7. 15. smasi, vidmasi, śriṇotana, sthana, baddhvāya in Gāthās.

Das gebührende n fehlt in den Participien vadatyaḥ 6, 27. 32. ṣocatyaḥ 3, 36. sishāsatyaḥ 4, 17.

Der Potential lautet auf ī statt e, wie vielfach in anderen Brāhmaṇa, in kāmayīta 3, 45 (kāmayeta 3, 33). āhvayīta 4, 7 (āhvayeta 2, 33). vyāhvayīta 3, 19. 6, 21.

Als Bindevokal bei der Wurzel grah findet sich ai statt ī in paryagrahaisham 6, 24. pratyajagrabhaisham 6, 35. Diese Wurzel hat mehrfach ihr altes bh bewahrt. So in gṛibhīta 2, 1. samagṛibhṇāt 3, 26. nigrabhītṛi 2, 7.

Beachtenswerth ist die Form tāshṭi (2, 4) von taksh nach der zweiten Conjugation, von der Spuren auch im Ṛigveda erhalten sind. Sie lehrt, dass in Ṛv. X, 180, 1 vi ṣatrūn tāḷhi mit taḍ nichts gemein hat.

Das Perfectum von dhṛi lautet, ebenso wie in Ts. Tb. Aitareyār. Tāṇḍya, immer dādhāra, von bhī findet sich 5, 25 bibhāya.

Das periphrastische Perfect wird stets mit kṛi zusammengesetzt, nur 7, 17 steht āmantrayām āsa.

Der Conjunctiv ist nicht selten: tishṭhāsi 2, 2. carāti 7, 15 (an unrechter Stelle des Metrums wegen). kṛiṇavatha 2, 7. prajānātha 1, 7. juhavātha 5, 32. asat 2, 8. atikrāmāt 1, 24. vidhyāt 6, 33. ālulobhayishāt 1, 24. pratitishṭhāt 4, 25. apaharāt 5, 30. gachān 2, 12. nirhaṇan 8, 6. ṣayāsai 2, 2. arjātai 3, 42. saṃgachātai 1, 24. saṃti-

1) Jedoch ist hier wahrscheinlich uccakrāma zu lesen.

2) Dieses hätte ich in nihnuvate verändern sollen.

sbṭhātai 8, 9. haratai (?) 5, 34. asyāthāḥ 6, 30. Für das in 3, 42 mehrfach wiederholte arjasi war arjāsi oder arjasva zu erwarten.

Beachtenswerthe Desiderativa sind jijyūshita von jīv 7, 29. didāsitha, Perfectum von dā, 8, 21. līpsitavyam von labh 2, 3. kalpayishan 3, 30, wo wegen des unmittelbar vorhergehenden vāci ursprünglich vielleicht cikalpayishan stand.

Von besonderen Infinitivformen sind folgende zu bemerken: āsado 'cīklipat 1, 29. purā nābhyā apiṣasaḥ 2, 6.

In Verbindung mit īṣvara, ā, purā stehen Infinitive auf toḥ. So abhyupaitoḥ 7, 29. aitoḥ, paraitoḥ 8, 7. pratyetoḥ 6, 30. anṛiṇākartoḥ 1, 14. arantoḥ 3, 48. glāvo janitoḥ 1, 25. vāco rakshobhāsho janitoḥ 2, 7. ni vā roddhor vi vā mathitoḥ 1, 10. avarshṭoḥ 3, 18. pratyavahartoḥ 7, 33. hiṅsitoḥ 1, 30. ā ṣarīrāṇām āhartoḥ 7, 2. purā vācaḥ pravaditoḥ 2, 15.

Der Infinitiv auf tavai findet sich zweimal: tam praharati vadhaṃ yo 'sya stṛityas tasmai startavai 2, 1. tenedaṃ sarvam etavai kṛitam 5, 15.

Das Absolutiv auf am ist eigenthümlich verwendet 7, 9: ya āhitāgnir jīve mṛitaṣabdaṃ ṣrutvā (für ṣriṇuyāt). Ein anderer grammatischer Schnitzer steht 2, 7: te 'bhitaḥ paricaranta ait (für āyan) paṣum.

Das Adverb paṣcā findet sich nur vor Vokalen: paṣcāstam 1, 7. paṣcāchāvākaḥ 2, 36. paṣceva 2, 36. 3, 2. paṣcāṅgirasaḥ 4, 17.

ā ist einmal mit dem Accusativ verbunden: ā daṣamam ahar ā dvāv atirātrau 4, 24. āntam 3, 45 muss als als ein Compositum aufgefasst werden.

iva steht hin und wieder in der Bedeutung von eva. So: pṛishṭhata ivāgnīdhraṃ kṛitvā 1, 30. yadi ha vā api bahava iva yajante 2, 2. so 'je jyoktamām ivāramata 2, 8.

Das prohibitive mā wird immer mit dem Aorist verbunden. Ausgenommen sind mā bibhīta 2, 16. mā yātayan 7, 13.

hanta kommt im Ganzen elfmal vor und zwar überall beim Imperativ. Wenn das letztemal 7, 16: hantāham upadhāvāmi steht, so liegt es nahe upadhāvāni zu schreiben, und so liest in der That die andere Recension.

Zu Ende eines Tatpurusha findet sich 1, 15 das richtige manushyarāja, befremdlich ist manushyarājñām 8, 26.

Eigenthümliche Constructionen sind: aṣvaḥ ṣveto rūpaṃ kṛitvā 6, 35 [1]). Indro vā etābhir mahān ātmānaṃ niramimīta 5, 7. paṣur vai nīyamānaḥ sa mṛityum prāpaṣyat 2, 6.

1) Vgl. Ts. 6, 1, 3, 1 kṛishṇo rūpaṃ kṛitvā. Tb. 1, 1, 3, 3 ākhū rūpaṃ kṛitvā.

Tautologisch ist: puro dīpyamānā bhrājamānāḥ 2, 11. asāv imām abhyunatty abhijighrati 1, 7. dvishantam apabādhate 'dharam pādayati 1, 13.

Conditionalsätze stehen öfter ohne beigesetzte Partikel, wie ganz gewöhnlich im Deutschen. prāyaṇīyam iti nirvapanti prāyaṇīyam iti caranti: prayanty evāsmāl lokāt 1, 11. pāvamānīshu sāmagāḥ stuvata, āgneyam hotājyam śaṁsati: katham asya pāvamānyo anuśastā bhavanti 2, 37. vashaṭkaroti: devapātreṇaiva tad devatās tarpayati 3, 5. āhvayate 'tha nividam dadhāti: brahmaṇy eva tat kshatram anuniyunakti 2, 33. adhīyann upahanyād: anyam vivaktāram ichet 3, 35.

Grammatische Ungethüme sind: apāhata 4, 25 (zweimal) für das oft vorkommende apāghnata. apinahyus für apinehus 6, 1. nihṣāna für nihṣyāna 7, 16. ajāyethāḥ für ajāyathāḥ 8, 15. avapadyeyam statt avapadyeya 8, 23. vṛiñjīyam statt vṛiñjīya 8, 15. niniyoja für niyuyoja 7, 16. vyapanayitum für vyapanetum oder vyapanāyayitum 7, 5. pariśriyete für pariśrīyete 1, 29. prajighyati, prajighyatu 8, 28. jagriyāt für jāgṛiyāt 8, 28. aśanayāparītaḥ statt aśanāyāparītaḥ oder aśanāyayā parītaḥ 7, 15. sāmnāhuka für samnāhuka 7, 14. iti ha smā ākhyāya für iti ha smāsmā ākhyāya 7, 13.

Grammatische Kunstausdrücke sind: kurvat für die Gegenwart 4, 31. kṛita für die Vergangenheit 5, 1. karishyat für die Zukunft 4, 29. Die Buchstaben wurden schon damals durch kāra bezeichnet, denn wir haben akāra, ukāra, makāra 5, 32. varṇa ist ein Buchstabe, akshara eine Silbe. Das Masculinum hiess vṛishan, das Femininum yoshā 6, 3. Vgl. Aitareyāraṇyaka 1, 2, 4 und öfter im Ṣ. P.

2, 3. āhūtayaḥ | Zur Erläuterung werden von āhuti zwei Etymologien gegeben. Die Spenden sind Einladungen der Götter, oder die Bahnen auf denen die Götter zu dem Rufe des Opfernden kommen (ā ūtayaḥ). Solche scheinbare Ableitungen sind in den Brāhmaṇa häufig und dienen entweder zur Begründung oder Veranschaulichung einer bestimmten theologischen Ansicht, drücken jedoch keineswegs die grammatische Ueberzeugung des Sprechenden aus. Vgl. Roth zu Nirukta S. 221.

3, 5. ājyaṃ | Ts. 6, 1, 1, 4. ghṛitaṃ devānām, mastu pitṛiṇāṃ, nishpakvam manushyāṇāṃ, tad vā etat sarvadevatyaṃ yan navanītaṃ. yan navanītenābhyaūkte, sarvā eva devatāḥ prīṇāti, etc.

4, 5. tat-tan nādṛityam, das verdient keine Beachtung. Dieses ist in unserem Brāhmaṇa die stehende Redensart für die Beseitigung abweichender Ansichten. Sie findet sich ausserdem 1, 11. 2, 3. 22. 23. 26. 3, 18. 37. 4, 7. 9. 22. Seltener gebraucht wird: tat tathā na kuryāt 3, 32. 6, 9. 21. Am derbsten ist: avidyayaiva tad āhuḥ 1, 11. Die entsprechenden Formeln im K. sind: na tad ādriyeta, atha nādriyeta, na tathā kuryāt. Das Ṣ. P. braucht na tathā kuryāt, na tathā brūyāt. Die Ts. hat zuweilen: tat tathā na kāryam.

Zur Entgegnung.

Herr Ludwig hat mir die Ehre erwiesen, meiner in der Vorrede zum dritten Bande seines Rigveda S. XXII zu erwähnen. Die Stelle lautet:

Aber sehn wir, wie wir von jemand ganz andern, von Professor Aufrecht kritisiert werden; I. 84, 16. soll ich nicht verstanden haben, und mit 'die priester' die frage 'wer etc.' beantwortet haben. Darum werde ich Herr Ludwig genannt, was in Prof. Aufrechts augen eine strafe zu sein scheint. Zum glück ist diese unverdiente strafe nur eine leichte, die ich noch dazu in guter gesellschaft abbüsze. Aber verdient habe ich sie nicht. Es war mir allerdings ser schwierig den leser aufmerksam zu machen, dasz 'die priester' nicht antwort auf wer? sein soll. Da übrigens es offenbar ist, dasz man über die 'gâ ṛtasya', nicht über 'wer' einer aufklärung bedarf, da letzteres sich von selbst beantwortet (obwol wir uns hierin geirrt haben), wenn n weisz, was unter ersterm zu verstehn, so begnügten wir uns, 'denn' einzuschieben, was für den aufmerksamen leser in der tat nug ist. Denn fürt man das ganze ausz, so heiszt es: 'wer beäftigt die rinder [die priester]? der einsichtige, denn wer ihre rung mert wird leben.' oder von wem gilt disz, wem nur kann n es zumuten, dasz er priester beschäftigt? denn es ist ja sein gener vorteil, also vom verständigen. Dieses 'denn' hat eben nur einen sinn. Herr Aufrecht, wie wir ihn nunmer in gerechter dervergeltung nennen, beantwortet aber seinerseits die frage 'wer' lsch; nicht 'irgend ein gottesfürchtiger' sondern die einsichtigen id gemeint, die, die ihren eigenen vorteil richtig zu beurteilen szen. Also auch wenn ich die frage in Aufrechts sinne beantwortet tte, konnte ich kein 'denn' einschieben. Vgl. die folgende strophe.

16 wer spannt heute an die stange der ordnung[1]) die kräftigen, immigen, schwer zu beugenden rinder? | die pfeile im rachen[2]) ben, die ins herz schieszen, die heilbringenden? [die priester, nn] wer ihre narung fördert, der wird leben.

17 wer flieht, wird geschädigt, wer fürchtet? [der böse;] wer aubt an Indra? wer glaubt, dasz er nahe? [der fromme.] | wer ndererseits] spricht seinen segen über samen und gesinde, über n reichtum, ihn selber und die leute? [Indra.]
